PROFESSOR ALEX. C. BARRY'S

TRICOPHEROUS, or Medicated Compound,

FOR beautifying improving, and preserving the Hair, curing cuts bruises burns stings, rheumatism and all irritations of the skin. A preparation, the sale of which amounts to one million of bottles annually, would seem to need no advertisement, but as the thousands who purchase use and approve of it, have probably no idea of the enormous extent of the business done by Professor Barry, we gives herewith a plain statement of facts derived from his books and with them tenders his earnest and hearty thanks to his innumerable patrons

Professor Barry's accounts of sales for the year 1852, show that during that year about 900 000 bottles of his Tricopherous were disposed of, and that the cash product of this immense sale was nearly $100 000.

This plain unvarnished tale is a better commentary on the value of the article than any thing its inventor could say If it were not powerful in its effect upon the hair—if it were not invaluable as a household remedy for cuts, bruises, burns, skin diseases &c. &c. it would not, of course be so universally in demand The wealthier portion of the public would buy it at any price but Professor Barry has reduced it to a figure so low that the poorest can avail themselves of its benefits

Sold in large bottles (price 25 cents) at wholesale and retail, at the manufactory and depot 337 Broadway, New York and by the principal merchants and druggists throughout the United States and Canada, Mexico, West Indies Great Britain, France, &c

McFarland's BURGLAR and FIRE PROOF SAFES!!

A FEW of the celebrated Safes have arrived from New York, and those who are in want of a superior article which has been severely tested for the last ten years in every country are invited to call and examine them Recently that the New York Tribune of them in regard to the late great fire in New York is further comment is unnecessary

[From the Journal of Commerce, of August 24th

Messrs B F Hood & Hitchcock of Cob Walker street, merchants, inform us that their Safe (one of McFarland's Fire and Burglar Proof) in the great fire of the Pearl st House, although exposed for thirteen hours to the combined effects of burning Rubbish and other falling material, broke in fast in the early morning, preserved the valuable papers in the most perfect manner They were not injured in the least manner.

[From the New York Evening Mirror of Aug 27th]

McFARLAND'S SAFES AT THE GREAT FIRE OF THE PEARL STREET HOUSE—Looking at the ruins of this great fire destroying well the Pearl street several of McFarland's Safes which were being taken out of the ruins, and which were all in color Of one of them particular deserves especial notice It had stood in Mr McFarland's Hitchcock's old store No 96 Water street and was exposed to the very hottest part of the fire being covered with burning oil and spirits and directly under a broken gas pipe from which the gas was escaping in large quantities and producing an intense heat In the midst of this fire the iron cabinet in question was informed by Mr Pond the owner that when opened the book and papers were found to be in a perfect state of preservation not even having scorched and hardly bearing the smell of fire thus proving itself a perfect salamander Every merchant should examine them and convince himself of their fire proof qualities assume half dozen others of the same make were in the fire and every one proved as contents from the loss of cage

[From the New York Tribune of August 30th]

The reputation of McFarland's celebrated Fire Proof Safes have lost no lustre in the late great fires as numerous persons bringing their contents unharmed, and saving many thousands of Bank for their owners These safes have built for themselves a fine and reputation and are adding to it at every fire McFarland's motto is "Excelsior"

[From the New York Herald Aug 25th]

Another convincing proof of the superiority of McFarland's Fire Proof Safe over all others as a protection against fire is the Safe which can now be seen at the ruins of the great fire on Tuesday night at the Pearl st House where it was exposed in the out store of Messrs Hood & Hitchcock for 36 Water st for thirteen hours to the combined effects of burning oil and spirits Books and papers inside were not even scorched

THE OLD TURNPIKE

We hear no more of the clanging hoof,
And the stage coach rattling by!
For the Steam King rules the traveled world
And the old Pike's left to die.
The grass creeps over the flinty path,
And the stealthy daisies steal
Where once the stage horse, day by day,
Lifted his iron heel!

No more the weary stager dreads
The toil of the coming morn,
No more the bustling landlord runs
At the sound of the echoing horn,
For the dust lies still upon the road,
And the bright eyed children play
Where once the clattering hoof and wheel
Rattled along the way!

No more we hear the cracking whip,
Or the strong wheel's rumbling sound;
But ah! the water drives us on,
And an iron horse is found
The coach stands rusting in the yard,
And the horse has sought the plough,
We have spanned the world with an iron rail,
And the Steam King rules us now.

The old turnpike is a pike no more,
Wide open stands the gate,
We have made us a road for our horse to stride
Which we ride at a flying rate,
We have filled the vale, and levelled the hills,
And tunelled the mountains side,
And round the rough crags dizzy verge
Fearlessly now we ride!

On—on—on—with a haughty front!
A puff a shriek and a bound!
While the tardy echos wake too late,
To babble back the sound
And the old pike road is left alone,
And the stager seeks the plough,
We have circled the earth with an iron rail,
And the Steam King rules us now!

Miss Lucy Stone.

It was a beautiful sight when the young white woman Miss Lucy Stone, placed her hand upon the head of the black woman, calling her sister, and introducing her as such to the assembled crowd It looked well and beautiful, and it was certainly felt by all that the white woman stood here as the friend and protector of the black Miss Lucy performed her part very well in a perfectly womanly, quiet, and beautiful manner She then related the history of the slave, and talked about slavery for a full hour, with perfect self possession, perspicuity, and propriety of tone and gesture But instead of speaking as she might and ought to have done, from her own womanly feeling of life—instead of awakening sympathy for the wrongs which woman especially suffers in slavery, inasmuch as her very children do not belong to her that the beings which she brings forth in sorrow are the property of her master, and may be taken from her and sold whenever he will—instead of laying stress upon this and many other circumstances repulsive to the heart and to every sense of justice, and which especially befall the female slave, Miss Lucy struck into the common track of so much hackneyed abuse of the pro slavery men of the North, and against Daniel Webster and his warm zeal for Hungarian freedom, while he saw with indifference three millions of Native Americans held in slavery

She repeated what the men had already said, and said better and more powerfully—than she did, she entirely mistook her own mission as a female speaker When will women perceive that, if they would worthily take a place in the orum, they must come forth with the dignity and power of the being who has new and mighty truths to enunciate and represent—They must feel and speak from the centre of the sphere of woman. Not all the good nature and courtesy of man will enable them to maintain their place on the public platform, if they do not take possession of it on their own positive ground

But she may yet obtain a more profound knowledge both of herself and life. The women who, in all ages have stood forward as the prophetesses of the inner life, as the prophetesses and interpretereesses of the most sublime and the most holy, and who were listened to as such by people and by kings—Deborah, Vala, Sybilla, merely naming in them some of the oldest types—these might point out to the women of the New World the path to public power and public influence And if they do not feel this higher power in themselves, how much better to remain in quietness and silence.

AN ACCOUNT OF THE PILGRIM CELEBRATION AT PLYMOUTH, AUGUST 1, 1853, containing a List of the Decorations in the town and correct copies of the Speeches made at the Dinner table Revised by the Pilgrim Society Boston Crosby Nichols & Co

This is the title of a handsome pamphlet, one hundred and eighty-two pages finely printed and full of interest to all who participated in the celebration, to the descendants of the Pilgrims and also to the general reader. We find here the beautiful mottoes employed in the decorations, copies of the hymns sung, the prayer offered and the various addresses made on the occasion, the letters read and the whole matter finely prepared and made permanently historical. This is just such a work as every American should read for the pleasure and the profit of it and such as every family would like to have upon their book shelves.

The work may be obtained at the Bookstores of E F Duren, and also at George R Smith's Bookstore

UNDERGROUND RAILROAD Many of our readers have doubtless read with incredulity, the statement now circulating in the newspapers that an underground railway is to be built under London Yet such is really the fact. The company has been formed, the contract made, and operations commenced The first line is to be two and a quarter miles long, and will cost $1,100 000, a large sum, but cheap in comparison with the cost of a railroad above the ground in the same locality. The tunnel, or rather the arcade is to be water tight and well lighted and all trouble from smoke will be avoided by not using locomotives, though what is to be substituted is not distinctly stated The projectors propose next year to extend the line further, and soon it will be possible to go from one end of London to the other in twelve minutes,

The Administration illustrated by its own words as well as acts.

The great effort of President Pierce now seems to be not to administer the government for the welfare of the governed, but in such a way as to cement together the broken fragments of his party by the disposal of the patronage at his command. But the more he tries to buy up the dissatisfied the more dissatisfaction he causes, and the wider the breaches become. This grows in part out of the fact that a portion of the party believe that the President should administer the government on clearly defined principles, which shall be known and understood, and upon which men may reason safely as to the result. They therefore cannot approve of the course of an administration that is forced by its want of well known principles to be perpetually patching up this place, and that balancing the claims of one section to day and to-morrow those of another section—seeking to secure harmony by patronage, instead of relying for the confidence of the people upon a faithful discharge of public duties.

It may seem that the charge we make against the administration grows out of partisan feeling, and cannot be fully sustained. To show however, that the proof is clear and incontrovertible, we publish the following letter of downright political debauchery, from the Secretary of the Treasury a member of the Cabinet, and which has received the sanction of the President:—

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3, 1853.

DEAR SIR:—Since the conversation we had upon the subject of the unfortunate division in the Democratic party in New York, I feel more and more convinced that the present disorganizers cannot fail to endanger the success of the principles of the party there, and to prove injurious elsewhere. But this separation is effected. A conviction has forced itself on my mind that by democrats pledged to each other upon a common platform of principles the division could and ought to have been prevented,

You are aware that the principles of the Baltimore Convention, and the policy intimated in the inaugural address, the President and his constitutional advisers stand pledged to before the world. They have been and are united as one man on these principles and that policy, and had reason to believe that al gentleman who consented to accept office under the administration stood pledged to the same principles and policy.

As the President understands the principles avowed as the platform of the party at Baltimore, all democrats who joined in upholding and carrying out the same were entitled to be recognised as worthy of the confidence of the united party, and consequently eligible to official station.

That all could not obtain office was manifest, and that the distribution could not be exactly equal amongst the different sections of the party was equally certain. Yet the distribution was intended to be so made as to give just cause of complaint to no one section, and it is believed that this intention has been carried out, not only the by President himself, but by most of the appointees, in respect to the offices under the latter

It has so happened that your appointments have been very generally made from that portion of the party to which you adhere. This you thought best calculated to secure union and harmony. That desirable object has failed to be obtained and the other portion of the party feel that they have not been fully recognized by you, and as things now stand, may appeal to justice to your motives. I call your attention to this subject, and to the fact that the President and his Cabinet, with entire unanimity, recognize that portion of the party as democrats distinctly avowing and firmly maintaining the principles of the Baltimore platform, and entitled to be recognized by appointment to official stations in your department. Allow me to express the expectation that you will so recognize them in the only way that will carry conviction with it.

I have not hitherto deemed it necessary to make any particular inquiry as to the section of the democratic party to which persons nominated for positions in the Custom House in New York belonged prior to the reun on of the party in 1848—which reunion was supposed to have been thoroughly cemented in the great and triumphant contest in 1852. But as the present excited state of feeling among political friends who acted together in 1852, and who now stand unequivocally upon the same platform, and principles in New York, is suggestive of a discrimination, of which the administration will not approve, I shall send a copy of this letter to the Naval Officer and the Surveyor of the Port, in order that there may be no misapprehensions as to the policy which the President will require to be pursued.

I am, very respectfully,
JAMES GUTHRIE.

G. C. Bronson, Esq., Collector at New York.

Copies of the above letter were sent to the Naval Officer and Surveyor, with the following note:—

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3, 1853.

DEAR SIR:—I inclose herewith a copy of a letter this day addressed to the Hon G. C. Bronson. It will explain itself, and show you what the President expects in relation to the distribution of patronage in the respective offices of the New York Custom House, to which you will conform your action in any future nominations you may have occasion to make.

I am, very respectfully,
JAMES GUTHRIE.

There is no open avowal of the course of the administration, not merely in reference to his own appointments but even to the meddling with the minor appointments. The prevailing tone of the country is that of indignation and disgust at so unblushing an avowal by one of the principal advisers of the President, that the offices of the government should be used as a means of building up and perpetuating a party—and of stamping the administration men of discordant opinions. The N. Y. Courier and Enquirer very justly remarks:

"Had Mr. Guthrie merely disgraced his own party by that performance we should have allowed it to pass unnoticed, for the 'unterrified' and the 'terrified' of the Democrats have shown that they are both able and willing to look after their own dirty work. But the writer of that letter is a Cabinet Minister of the United States; in point of rank as the head of the revenue department of the commercial metropolis of the country; and the disgrace, therefore, which will necessarily and justly result from the giving of such documents to the world attaches to the nation as well as to the party who placed these gentlemen in their official positions."

The N. Y. National Democrat, the organ of the "Hards," makes this letter the subject of an article, from which we extract the following to show the tone of the Democrats who sympathize with Bronson, and with the opposition to the Cabinet:

"We have been considerate and merciful to the Cabinet; but there are limits to faith, and forbearance becomes cowardice when the impunity it grants is made the pretext of subsequent outrages. The camel may bear a heavy load, but there is a period to its endurance, and rather than be crushed to death, it will turn upon its task masters—and so will we upon every member of the Cabinet who breaks faith with the Democratic party. We will not make brick without straw—we will not support a Democratic Cabinet when it ceases to be worthy of the name. The letter of Secretary Guthrie to Collector Bronson, is an insult to the Democracy of New York, a violation of our State rights, and the first avowed application of that 'plunder screw,' which, it is hoped, will lay the public opinion of the country prostrate at the feet of an imperious oligarchy."

The New York Mirror remarks that "the above extraordinary edict from the Secretary of the Treasury will be read with mingled feelings of astonishment and indignation. It is decidedly a 'model' document, intellectually as well as politically, and indicates a narrow, proscriptive, vindictive policy. We regret to learn from Washington that this pitiful pronunciamento has received the same ton of the President."

There is a general demand for the dissolution of the Cabinet but it has were done the President would waver and trot about in timidity and feebleness and incorporate the same elements in a new cast.

☞ Several of the citizens of Brewer have shown their appreciation of the benefits received from the Fire Department in this city in cases of fire by making a present to Engine Company No 3 of thirty dollars to aid in furnishing and decoration of their Hal. This is a highly honorable testimony worthy of the liberality of the donors and the efficiency of the recipients the active, efficients and enthusiastic Firemen of No. 3 could never neglect the generous, grateful neighbors of Brewer in case of fire, and now they will not cease to remember them as ever more their friends than neighbors.

☞ Edward Tibbetts of the 'Alhambra' was prosecuted yesterday for selling liquor and was fined ten dollars and cost charged at three dollars, and fourteen cents. The money was paid

The case of the seizure of liquor at Eddes' was before the Police Court yesterday and postponed to Thursday of next week.

Norman McNaughton in whose premises liquors were seized, obtained yesterday of the Police Judge a continuance in his case until Friday of next week.

☞ Those Y Herald thinks that the proper Administration is a pure abolition, and hat the only hope for President Pierce lies in the immediate dismissal of his Cabinet. Such a bloody defeat would be hailed by the country as an incontrovertible evidence of the Presidents qualification for the high office to which he has been elevated, and would just fy the confidence the exposed in him.

☞ There is great complaint as to the condition of the side walk on Broad Street. A portion of the brick block there has been raised and the side walk is left in a bad state and it should be the duty of some one to put it in shape.

☞ At the recent term of the Supreme Court in this city ALBION P. WARNER and SAMUEL F. HUMPHREY were admitted to practice as Counsellors and Attorneys.

☞ The first premium on woolen yarn, at the Plymouth County Agricultural Fair, was awarded to Miss Betsey Holmes of Marshfield, a lady of ninety-five years of age.

☞ A boy in Salem was last week fined $5 for mutilating a handbill posted up in a public place in that city.

Marshal of the Western District of Arkansas in consequence of his having arrested Indians for introducing spirituous liquors into the Indian country, and who had been punished under the Indian law for the offence in the same cases. The Indians are said to be very indignant. The Secretary of the Interior is said to have directed that no more arrests be made until full information is received, and further instructions given.

MURDER OF A NATIVE OF MAINE IN CALIFORNIA. We learn from the Calaveras Chronicle that on the 15th of August an inquest was held on the body of a man supposed to be murdered by Joaquin's band, near Angel's Camp. The deceased was a man about 22 years of age, named Mark R. Howe, and a native of Rumford, Maine. He had three or four hundred dollars with him when he was murdered.

CALIFORNIA ITEMS.

From a letter by a correspondent at San Francisco, we take the following paragraphs:

"A general stagnation has hitherto overspread the whole State. The jobbers have barely sold enough to pay their expenses. Some merchants with whom the writer is personally acquainted, and whose expenses are not enormous, (owning their stores, and exempt from clerk hire) have lost money during the last few months The market for nearly all kinds of goods is overstocked, and enables the purchaser to buy many articles cheaper than in the East. Recently, however, our business locals are given evidence of a start from their torpor This market must always remain a unreliable one for the unsubstantial dealer. Unable to be "posted up" in relation to shipments and exact proximity of expected cargoes, the merchant must constantly entertain a feeling of uncertainty, and heavy expenses will force a "candid" dealer into sales at ruinous sacrifices. A telegraph or railroad, practically bringing us nearer to the home market, will, to a great extent, obviate this unconvenience

The improvements in progress in his city ought to reduce our enormous rents. But somehow the land holders have the whip-row, and extort in many instances higher monthly rents than are the yearly rates at home. The mechanics all enjoy a rich harvest, high prices and constant employment.

We find full details of the recent Indian difficulties on Rogue River, which, after some fighting and skirmishing, were settled by treaty the Indians giving up their arms and ammunition A battle took place on the 24th of August, when ten Indians and three whites were killed.

The mining news from every section of the State continue highly favorable. The present is the harvest season of the river miners, and they are industriously improving it The working of quartz, taken altogether, cannot be considered successful

The City Council of San Francisco have passed an ordinance authorizing a twelve years loan of $500,000, with 7 per cent interest, payable semi annually in New York the ordinance is to be approved by the people The ordinance was approved, although by a small vote.

The total number of passengers by sea that arrived at San Francisco from January 1 to August 27, was 26,822—of whom 21,886 were males, 4,138 females, and 608 children The total number that left within the same time was 18,093, nearly all males The addition to our population seaward, amounted, therefore, during the first eight months of the present year, to only 8031

Intelligence of an interesting character has been received from Sonora, Mexico, announcing the discovery of mines of extraordinary richness In consequence a decided spirit of filibustering has been revived in this State, and several gentlemen are engaged in the preliminary arrangements for organizing expeditions

The rich developments of our soil are exciting the amazement of even those engaged in agricultural pursuits The enormous yields of cereal grains is fully equalled by those of vegetables, and many of the temperate fruits Our markets are glutted with potatoes, tomatoes, squashes, onions turnips, and corn, Chile and every variety of the most delicious melons are imported from the neighboring gardens and ranches in immense quantities, and can be purchased at rates which will compare not exorbitantly with the prices demanded in our East ern cities

"It appears from a carefully prepared table contained in the Shipping List, that the quantity of quicksilver manufactured in and shipped from San Francisco during the six months ending June 30, amounted to 90-7 flasks of 100 lbs each, equal, at seventy cents per pound, to $633,290 The actual amount shipped, however, probably somewhat exceeds this estimate."

SEBATT'S STATION
KENNEBEC CO., MAINE,
July 23, 1853.

SIR I have the honor to communicate the interesting discoveries made by Lieut Commanding T A. CRAVEN and Lieut Commanding J. N MAFFITT, U S. N., Assistants in the Coast Survey, in their recent cruises for the exploration of the Gulf stream south of Charleston In running the section across the Gulf stream from Charleston, Passed Midshipman Jones, of Lieutenant Maffitt's party in charge of the Coast Survey schooner Crawford, off cruised the soundings could be kept at equal lines than six hundred fathoms entirely across the stream, bottom being brought up Beyond the Gulf stream the soundings correspond with those and down upon the bank struck by Lieut Craven further south, The Crawford was on this bank on the 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th of June On the 7th, bottom was brought up from three hundred fathoms in latitude 31 degrees 37 minutes, and longitude 78 degrees 33½ minutes

On the 10th of June, in running the section of the Gulf stream from Cape Canaveral, Florida, after crossing the stream Lieut Commanding Craven obtained soundings in four hundred and sixty fathoms, and the bottom was brought up, in latitude 28 degrees 24½ minutes N., and longitude 79 degrees 5 minutes W The shoal thus independently discovered by Lieutenant Commanding Maffitt and Craven was again struck by the latter in the cross section from St. Augustine, Florida, St. Simmons, Georgia; and Charlestown, South Carolina A full examination of this ground which is probably connected with the Bahama Banks will be made soon. The specimens of bottom brought up are deposited in the Coast Survey office.

I would respectfully request authority to publish this note. Yours, respectfully,
(Signed) A D BACHE, Sup't
Hon. JAMES GUTHRIE
Secretary of the Treasury.

The New York Commercial Advertiser, after speaking of the President's inconsistent appointments, makes the following very just and sensible remarks.

"That was President Pierce's radical error, for such a course was open only to one interpretation, viz,—that his alleged strong Union sentiment was a profession, not a principle The honor and safety of the Union must slightly upon the conscience, and have but feeble cliff upon the affection, of him who could invite an assailant of that Union into his cabinet, and liberally endow others with the 'spoils' which national men of all parties, had placed at his disposal.

This, we say, has been the radical defect in Mr. Pierce's policy, for it has very naturally destroyed confidence in the man What has at times tended greatly to neutralize the prestige that once attached to his name and was in mentarily augmented by his inaugural address, is the unparalled indecision that has marked his executive course. Having never made factious opposition to the doings of his Administration we feel at liberty to speak freely on the subject. A weak, hesitating vacillating Chief Magistrate we deem almost the greatest evil that can be at our country yet there is no disguising the fact that such a Chief Magistrate at present occupies the White House. Nor so far as we are concerned, was the community unwarned of this possible contingency. We repeatedly published out that Franklin Pierce, weakness of his senatorial and political record of his military occupation seemed only at his case in the quiet succession of a country legal practice without public responsibility: We once went so far as to say, hazardingly, that perchance he might worry of the Presidency and seek to resign that high office and if one-half that we hear from Washington be true our prophecy may yet be fulfilled.

MR H G Farrell—Dear Sir: Actuated by a sense of gratitude as I submit the following as an instance of the utility of your great medicine My child, three years old, was suddenly attacked with a terrible disease, which in less than an hour reduced it to a lifeless lump. The limbs became so rigid that it could be bent the flesh turned black and cold and entirely deprived of feeling the eyes fixed, partially closed and altogether bloodless. There was shallowness of all sounds, the spine became contracted, and so curved that when lying on its back the head and heels only touched Indeed, the child presented every appearance of being dead. Immediately on the attack the family physician was called in, and for three weeks he labored to restore it, but all in vain, although it was his treated a few times, and various remedies and liniments applied Consultations of physicians have been held but to no purpose the case was then brought before the Medical Society but nothing could be sung steps which had not already been done, and the doctor then told me he could do nothing more. We then commenced applying your Liniment freely over the entire length of the spine, and you may imagine, a parent's joy when, after a few applications, returning animation was apparent, and it finally recovered with the exception of the sight which did not then appear perfect for more a month The child is now healthy and robust as can be. Four only or cases of the same kind occurred previously in my neighborhood all of which died, when there was doubt if your Liniment had been used they would have recovered

Green Mountain Vegetable CEMENT.
BROKEN China Glass Earthen Ware, and Fancy Articles of every description, repaired and mended making it as strong as before broken without injuring its appearance

This Cement which has been proved to be of great strength will be found particularly useful in every family, the simple manner of its application is alone a recommendation The adhesive property which it contains is so wonderful that many things will rather break in a fresh place than where they have been mended with it The variety of purposes for which it may be used are so numerous that it would be difficult to recite them Its success in mending Glass, China &c is extraordinary, no ordinary degree of heat affecting it, and as the joints are scarcely perceptible articles of the kind may be made useful for years, which otherwise would have been cast away

John Bunyan's Immortal Allegory
PROBABLY no book save the Bible has been so extensively read as Bunyan's inimitable allegory

The Pilgrim's Progress.
It has been translated into nearly all the different languages of Christendom, and been perused with delight and holy fervor by all nations Art has lent her attractions in nearly all the forms of illustration from the rough Wood Cut to the exquisite Steel Engraving But to be middle of the nineteenth century and to an American clergyman we are indebted for the original pictorial conception of this immortal work

The novel and sublime idea of embodying the entire story, and transferring the same to a single picture, showing the wanderings of Christian from the 'City of Destruction' to the Celestial City presenting at one view to the eye the varied scenes through which he passed originated with Rev DANIEL WIGHT, of Massachusetts His truly original and beautiful conception was reduced to a most elegant design by HAMMATT BILLINGS and from this design JOSEPH ANDREWS the distinguished historical engraver has produced after four years of labor, a picture which will take rank among the most superb and elaborate productions of human genius taste and skill

The picture is now ready and will be offered at the Bookstore of the Publishers and by Agents duly appointed by the Publishers

DO YOU WANT A PERMIT?
THE subscriber wishes to permit Township No 1 R 2, or Bancroft Plantation, situated at the junction of the Mattawamkeag and Baskahegan rivers (which run 15 miles in the town with several navigable brooks) As the township is nearly level, and all will be soon great and small operators can both be accommodated In view of the quantity and quality of the timber, (which is mostly spruce though each team will get some good pine) the favorable nature of the land, and the cheapness and certainty of receiving early at the Boom, with whole length stuff, the subscriber, after personal exploration, does not hesitate to recommend this section of the best chance for lumbering on the Penobscot waters Prices very reasonable. TESTIMONIALS.

The following certificate from Dr John C Warren, of Boston, was given 17 years since but will last forever

BOSTON, Jan 5 1853.

Having had occasion to observe that some persons afflicted with Hernia, have suffered much from the want of a skilful workman in accommodating Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases, I have taken pains to inform myself of the competence of Mr J F Foster in supply the deficiency occasioned by the death of Mr Heath—After some months of observation of his work, I am well satisfied that Mr Foster is well acquainted with the manufacture of these instruments, and ingenious in accommodating to the variety of cases which occur I feel called up n to recommend him to my professional brethren, and to the public as a person well fitted to supply their wants in regard to the best of all such articles

JOHN C WARREN, M D

The undersigned, take great pleasure in commending to the favorable consideration of those who are unhappily afflicted with Hernia, Mr James Frederick Foster as a skillful and competent person in the manufacture and fitting of Trusses We have employed him for some time in our family and therefore speak from personal knowledge of his abilities His early advantages, his long experience in the business and the large number of individuals whom he has relieved in a variety of cases, render him, in our opinion, equal, if not superior to any manufacturer of articles His father, Rev Gideon Foster of Littleseyan, was master of the Poor house in that town for upwards of twenty five years, during which period Mr Foster assisted himself to the opportunity, and made application of Trusses to a great variety of cases, with great success, some of which were of a very complicated and distressing character

It is well known to all who have occasion to wear a Truss that the great excellence consists in its adaptation to the body at long time relieving the patient. Any ordinary mechanic may make a Truss but none but a skilful practitioner can apply it in such a manner as effectually, and oftentimes radically cure the complaint

Our experience has confirmed us in the belief that Mr Foster has thoroughly attained this knowledge. The certificates of Dr J C Warren, and other eminent surgeons, which he has shown to us, fully sustain the opinion we here express
